Mind

The aspect of a person that enables perception, thought, consciousness, and rationality. It encompasses mental processes such as cognition, memory, emotions, and the ability to reason and make decisions.

Balance

The state of equilibrium and harmony between the mind, body, and soul, achieved through self-awareness, mindfulness, and a holistic approach to well-being.

Body

The physical structure of a living organism, consisting of the organs, tissues, and cells that make up the body. It is responsible for the physical functions and actions of the individual.

Soul

The spiritual or immaterial aspect of a person, often considered the seat of emotions, intuition, and inner wisdom. It is believed to be eternal and transcends the physical body.
