CHIC BOOTS

There's nothing more modern than a pair of dreamy cream boots. Whether you go for a stacked heel (our personal favourite), a micro stiletto or flat, stompy soles, there's something timeless about the knee-high – not least because they work with those pretty dresses and skirts you'd normally pack away after party season. Not the most practical boot for muddy puddles, we admit, but then they're so chic they're worth it.

Jumper, £79, 8-20, John Lewis & Partners. Shirt, £89, 4-18, The White Company. Skirt, £605, 8-33, Marina Rinaldi. Earrings, £68, Mejuri. Boots, £225, 3-7, Ted Baker

COCKTAIL PUMPS

Glisten up! A glittery pump is for life, not just for Christmas. Often reserved for after-dark occasions, fancy flats are far more versatile than you think.

Soften the drama of sparkles by styling with relaxed track pants, tailored joggers and, of course, a dash of denim. The key to looking effortlessly modern in smart-casual hybrid wear is to contrast the glamour by keeping textures relaxed and your silhouette simple.

Jumper, £165, xs-l, & Other Stories. Trousers, £39.50, £-24, Marks & Spencer. Earrings, £68, Mejuri. Pumps, £150, 3-9, Boden
